

Invest in Kids Nurse-Family Partnership DAISY Team Award Criteria

- Teams must be led by a nurse or group of nurses
- Teams must be comprised of 2 or more individuals
- The team's project should be described in detail, including outcomes
- The team's project should demonstrate one or more of these principles

Compassionate, Quality, Client Centered Care

- Members strive for high quality, client centered, and compassionate care while upholding fidelity to the NFP model.
- Promotes positive interdisciplinary relationships and views them as essential to exceptional client care.
- Incorporates teaching, models excellent interpersonal skills, and encourages and values feedback.

Leadership

- Incorporates independent clinical judgement that is consistent with professional practice standards.
- Conveys a strong sense of advocacy for staff, clients, and families while promoting site and organizational goals.
- Participates in the quality improvement process and perceives the process as one that is essential in improving the quality of client care.

Professionalism

- Members are role models of collaboration and teamwork that make a difference in the lives of clients, families, staff, and the community.
- Members exemplify your organization's values and embody your mission.
- Members value and participate in activities to enhance their personal and professional growth and development.

